Planned Unit Development (PUD) Requirements

Required Concept Development Plans

1. A legal description of the property
2. A statement describing the general character of the intended development.
3. An accurate map of the project area showing the proposed site and its proposed land uses, and the adjacent properties and their present urban or projected land uses.
4. The pattern of proposed land uses, including the shape, size and arrangement of proposed use areas, density, and environmental character.
5. The pattern of public and/or private streets.
6. Proposed open space and public sites
7. Preliminary number, size and concept of the proposed structures within each area.
8. An outline for the anticipated schedule and sequence of development in terms of subareas for the total PUD District.
9. Preliminary Subdivision Plat (if necessary).
10. A public hearing notice is scheduled before the Planning & Zoning Commission for consideration. A two week public hearing notice is required, as well as, written notification sent to property owners within 150 feet.

Required Detailed Development Plans

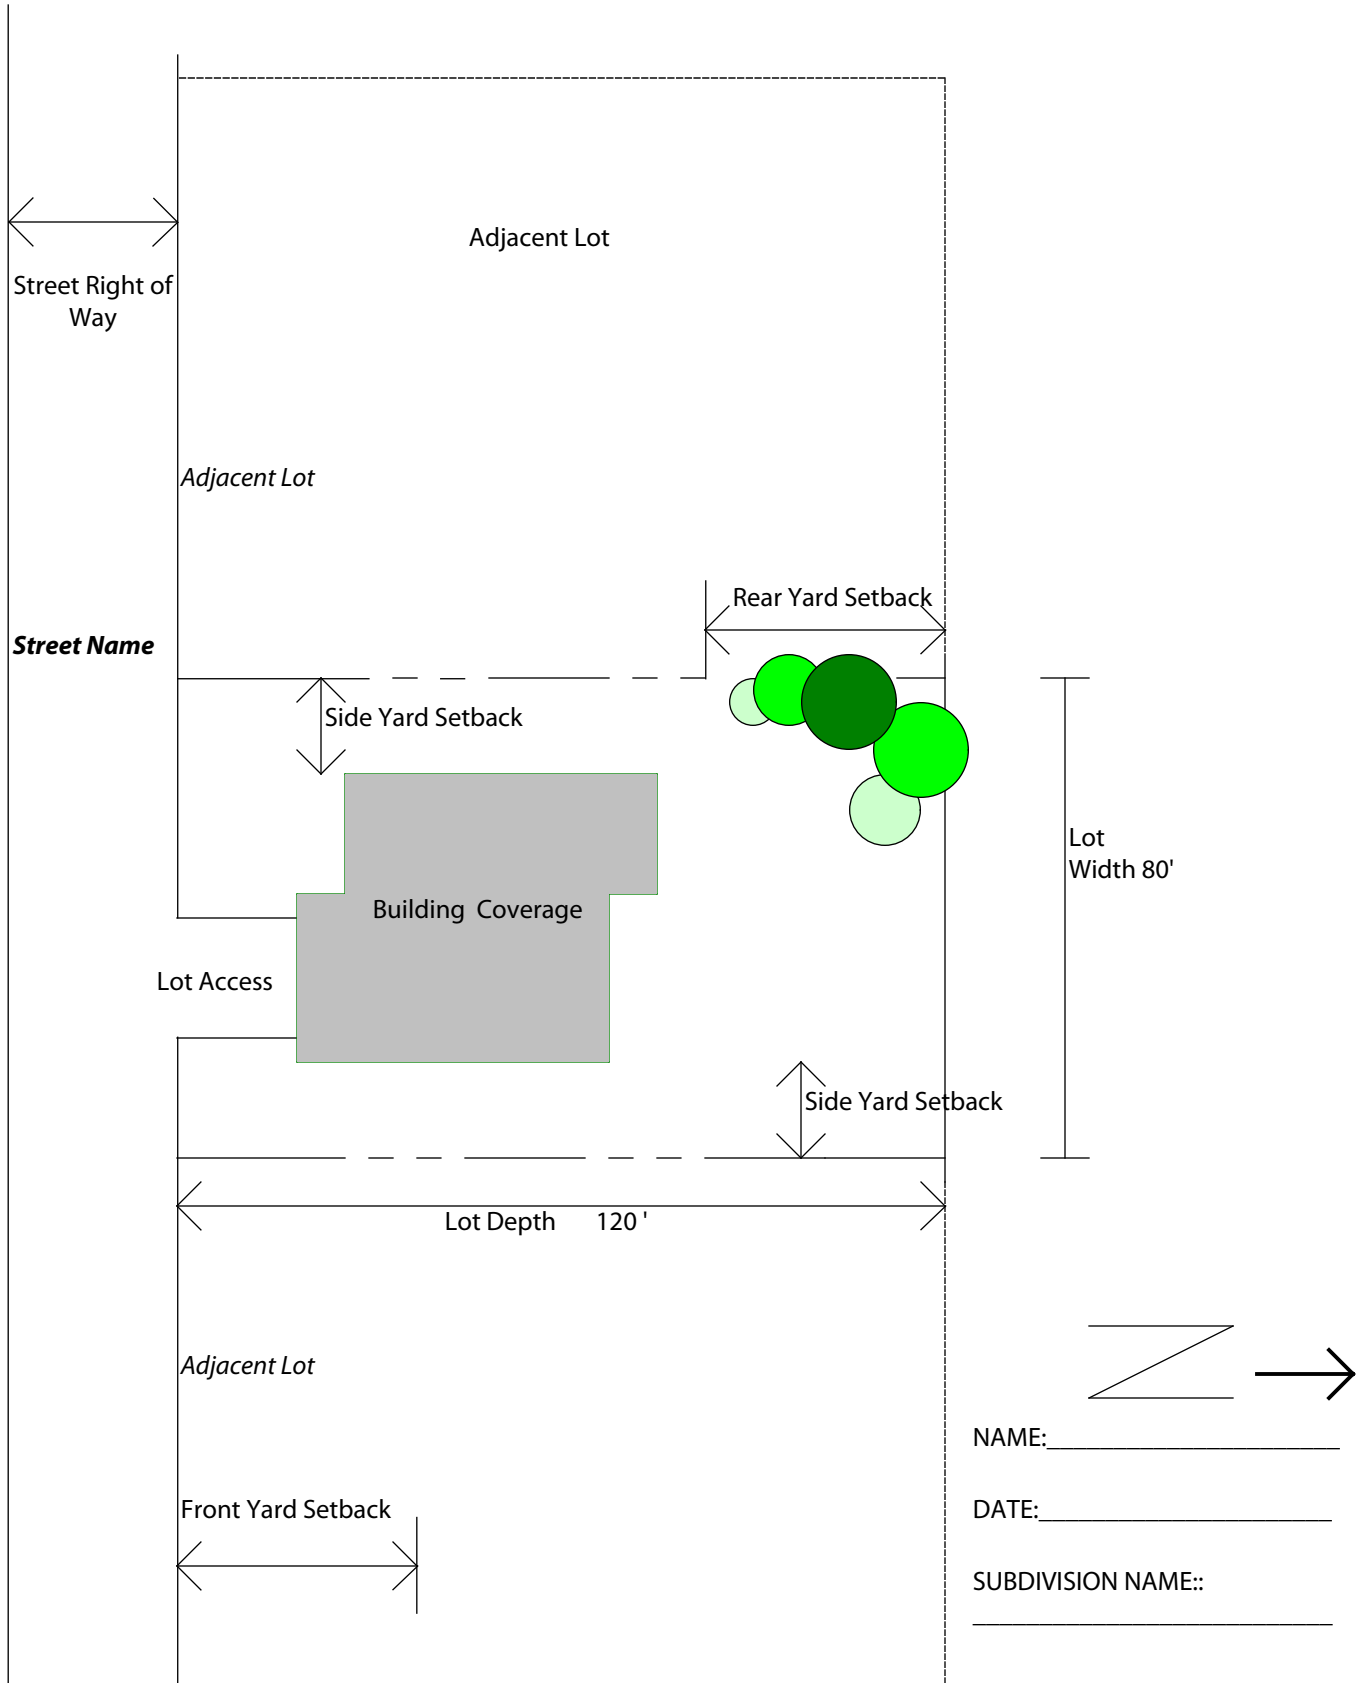

1. Final Subdivision Plat (if necessary).
2. A scale site plan with all dimensions, setbacks, etc., and including curb cuts and sidewalk placement.
3. Landscaping plans for the property including the required planting(s) as per the 13th Avenue East Tree Planting Plan or other approved plans, if necessary.
4. Building plans including a floor plan and elevation plan for this particular project with a description of the external building materials.
5. Sign plans for all signage showing areas, setbacks, height, etc..
6. A drainage and utility plan.
7. An outline for the anticipated schedule and sequence of construction for all improvements within the PUD.
8. A written agreement with the City stating the applicant will comply with all provisions of the detailed development plan. This agreement will further provide that should the installation of all necessary improvements do not take place within eighteen months after initiation of construction, the City will be authorized to provide for the installation of said improvements. As part of this agreement, the developer will waive any rights to protest any special assessments.
9. The Planning & Zoning Commission gives consideration of the request.
10. Following consideration by the Planning & Zoning Commission, the Detailed Development Plans are submitted to the City Commission for consideration. The City Commission holds a public hearing considering the Planned unit Development by giving First and Second Readings. The Detailed Development Plan then becomes the official development plan for the property which cannot be altered except through an approved minor modification to the PUD by the Planning & Zoning Commission (provided the qualification are met), or through amendment to the PUD.
11. Construction of the PUD shall be started within two (2) years from the effective date of approval of the plan by the City Commission. Failure to begin the development within two (2) years shall automatically void the development plan and another Detailed Development Plan must be submitted and approved prior to any development of the property.
